BUON APPETITO! A CULINARY ESCAPE FOR 2 TO TUSCANY

VALUE: $4,000

Start your culinary adventure with a 2-night stay in Rome at the luxurious Hotel Ponte Sisto, within walking distance of the Piazza Navona and the heart of historic Rome. You'll then travel to northwestern Tuscany and the town of Barga for a 5-night stay at the Renaissance Tuscany Il Ciocco Resort & Spa. It is located in a 1,500 acre park in the Garfagnana Valley, where gourmets and wine buffs indulge in local delicacies and breathtaking landscapes. Your stay includes daily breakfast and spa credit. You will take a day trip to nearby Lucca for a private cooking class, lunch, tour of the wine cellar and olive oil mill at Fattoria Colleverde vineyard, and cook with Chef Rodolfo as he shares with you secrets of Tuscan cuisine—from how to make fresh pasta to the use of aromatic herbs and spices, from baking bread to preparing main courses using seasonal meats and vegetables. Buon appetito! If you decide to take a day trip to Florence, birthplace of the Italian Renaissance, you will enjoy a private behind-the-scenes tour, including historic Santa Croce where Michelangelo and Galileo are buried.

Trip must be booked a minimum of 60 days in advance. Reservations are subject to availability and hotel may be substituted for comparable or better property. NOTE: Airfare, ground transportation, and gratuities not included; ground travel to Florence not included. Certificates cannot be replaced if lost, stolen, or destroyed. All purchases are non-refundable. Package cannot be resold. Special thanks to Renaissance art historian Paola Vojnovic, celebrity tour guide in Florence, Italy.

OWN YOUR OWN “TIN LIZZIE!” RESTORED 1923 MODEL T ROADSTER CONVERTIBLE

VALUE: PRICELESS

You can have a piece of American history with this classic 1923 Ford Model T Roadster Convertible. Introduced into production in 1908, Henry Ford’s “Model T” was named the most influential car of the 20th century and became a powerful symbol of America’s age of industrialization. Ford famously said: “Any customer can have a car painted any color he wants so long as it is black.” Nearly a century later, the 1923 Model T is a quintessential centerpiece to any automotive enthusiast’s collection, or just a fun car to drive around! This Roadster Convertible was a former showroom display car at a Wisconsin Ford dealership; it is offered in good condition and is equipped with a set of Rocky Mountain brakes and a highly desirable period upgrade. This would be a wonderful addition to your family’s car collection!

Recent sales of the 1923 Model T have ranged from $5,500 to $20,000. Special thanks to Jimmy and Yolanda Janacek.
