Starry Starry Night Benefiting Voices for Children September 29 in Rancho Santa Fe

2018 Event Chaired by Becca and Jason Craig, Cambra and Randy Finch, and Zoe and Eric Kleinbub

(July 30, 2018) San Diego, CA – Starry Starry Night, one of San Diego's premier fundraising events, will be held on Saturday, September 29, 2018. The 16th annual gala will take place at the renowned Sahn Estate at Del Dios Ranch. All event proceeds will benefit Voices for Children, a local nonprofit organization which transforms the lives of children in foster care by providing them with volunteer Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASAs). CASAs advocate for foster children in the courtroom, at school, and in the community to ensure their needs are met.

The signature event of Voices for Children since 2002 has grown from an intimate event in a private home to one of the most anticipated events in our community. Last year's gala grossed more than $1.5 million. The event returns to Del Dios Ranch in Rancho Santa Fe, which boasts the spectacular Sahn Estate, home to the late Ramona and Roland Sahn. The residence has hosted numerous philanthropic events and is currently on the market.

The evening will begin with an elegant cocktail hour featuring exclusive creations by Snake Oil Cocktail Co. followed by a custom, gourmet menu by Jeffrey Strauss, chef and owner of Pamplemousse Grille. Guests will have the opportunity to bid on fabulous items during the Live Auction and raise their paddles to directly Fund-A-CASA. The gala will conclude with a lively after-party with dancing under the stars.

STARRY STARRY NIGHT 2018 CHAIRS

Becca Craig, born Rebecca Christian is a second generation San Diegan and has been a proud supporter of Voices for Children since 2009. She is a founding member of the Rady Children's Hospital Auxiliary La Jolla Unit and a founding member of The Miracle Babies/Miracle Circle Auxiliary. Ms. Craig is a current patroness of National Charity League, and once served as troop leader for Girl Scouts San Diego for five years. Her work background is in dermatology, where she practiced esthetics. Ms. Craig hopes to someday become a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA).

Jason Michael Craig, born in Los Angeles, CA, is the youngest son of Sid and Jenny Craig, noted entrepreneurs, philanthropists, and children's advocates. Mr. Craig is the owner and CEO of several retail and management corporations in the San Diego and Riverside areas, and has founded multiple privately held corporations. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Pitzer College. Mr. Craig is a long-standing advocate for children's causes, including Rady Children's Hospital, Make-A-Wish San Diego, and Voices for Children.

Becca and Jason Craig reside in La Jolla. They are the proud parents of four children, ages 14, 12, 9, and 4.

Cambra Finch has supported Voices for Children for nearly a decade, and has served on the host committee of several events over that time. She is a California licensed clinical psychologist with an active clinical practice in La Jolla serving adults and adolescents. Her publications include conclusions on her extensive research regarding relational aggression in pre-adolescents. Ms. Finch worked for many years in psychiatric hospitals, outpatient clinics, residential treatment centers, and group homes serving foster children. She has been an active volunteer at the Gillispie School and La Jolla Country Day School, and served as a Troop leader for the Girl Scouts of America. She received her bachelor's degree in psychology and business administration from the University of San Diego, and her master's in psychology and doctorate in philosophy degrees from the California School of Professional Psychology, San Diego.

Randy Finch has served on the Board of Directors of Voices for Children since 2013. He is a lawyer and the managing partner of Finch, Thornton, & Baird, LLP. Mr. Finch is also the manager of several investment funds with real estate, technology, beverage, and automotive holdings. He serves on the Government Relations Committee, Political Action Committee, and Board of Directors of the Associated General Contractors of America, San Diego Chapter, and as an ex-officio member of several clients' board of directors. Mr. Finch received his J.D. from the University of San Diego and his bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of San Diego.

Cambra and Randy Finch reside in La Jolla. They are the proud parents of three children, ages 15, 13, and 9.

Zoe Kleinbub, born Zoe Zaitzeff in Mount Kisco, New York, was a competitive swimmer and alpine ski racer as a youth and graduated from Indiana University with a bachelor's degree in psychology. Ms. Kleinbub is an active community volunteer in La Jolla, and currently serves on the Board of the La Jolla Athenaeum Music & Arts Library. Her past work includes producing visual effects films for Disney, Digital Domain, Sony Pictures Imageworks, and Reliance Media, and producing television ads for Audi, Google, and Intel.

Eric Kraemer Kleinbub, born in Point Loma, CA, is a seventh generation Californian, a descendent of Jose Antonio Yorba. He attended The Bishop's School in La Jolla and went on to receive a bachelor's degree in public policy planning and development from The University of Southern California. Mr. Kleinbub is CEO of Pacific Transwest Real Estate, a privately owned real estate investment company, with holdings throughout the United States. He sits on the boards of The Kraemer Endowment Fund, The Mingei Museum, and The Kraemer Land Company. He is passionate about the oceans and was a junior oceanographer at Scripps institute in La Jolla. Mr. Kleinbub cooked at the Michelin starred restaurant La Folie after obtaining a culinary degree at Tante Marie in San Francisco. He and his twin brother, Christian, collect Pre-Columbian art and have built one of the most important collections of Peruvian ceramics in the world, some of which is showcased at the MET in NYC.

Zoe and Eric Kleinbub reside in La Jolla. They are the proud parents of two boys, ages 3 and 1.

ABOUT VOICES FOR CHILDREN

Founded in 1980, Voices for Children (VFC) transforms the lives of abused, neglected, and abandoned children in foster care in San Diego and Riverside Counties by providing them with trained volunteer Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASAs). CASA volunteers advocate for a foster child or sibling group in Court, school, and in the community to ensure their needs are met. VFC believes that every child deserves a safe and permanent home, striving to provide a CASA volunteer to every child in the foster care system who needs one. Last year, VFC CASAs and staff advocated on behalf of more than 3,200 foster children across San Diego and Riverside Counties.
